

BOSTON COLLEGE
SUMMER COURSES

Economic Policy Analysis from a European Perspective

Berlin, Germany
June, 2011

Overview: Course focuses on the policy challenges facing European economies and the methods used to study and address them. Several guest lecturers present their current work and discuss challenges in performing economic analysis considering social and political dimensions. Students participate in an international conference and critique the papers and presentations.

Taught by Professor Christopher F. Baum, Department of Economics and Research Professor, DIW Berlin.

3 credits; fulfills elective requirements for the A&S Economics Major, Minor, and CSOM Economics concentration

All BC students eligible to apply.

For more information about program, dates and tuition, contact:

The Office of International Programs

www.bc.edu/international/
summerabroad@bc.edu