

Berlin, April 15-18 2004

Call for Papers

The 24th Annual Meeting of the European Public Choice Society (EPCS) will take place in Berlin from April 15 – 18, 2004. The conference is jointly organized by Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Freie Universität Berlin and the German Institute for Economic Research (DIW Berlin).

The society aims to link economic research with political applications. Its annual conferences provide a platform for the exchange of ideas and findings on all aspects of the intersection of politics and economics. Ongoing research from all fields of Public Choice will be presented and discussed.

Researchers are invited to submit their papers by December 19, 2003 to the head of the organizing committees, Bengt-Arne Wickström. The Scientific Committee of the EPCS 2004 conference will evaluate all submitted papers, and decisions will be communicated to authors by January 31, 2004.

Papers should be submitted electronically, preferably in PDF format and delivered as one file. Authors should also attach an abstract no longer than 100 words in a separate file. Authors should use the submission form on the conference homepage, www.diw.de/epcs2004. Further information can be obtained from EPCS2004@diw.de
