Thursday, 16th June, 2005

13.00 h Welcome addresses

Michael Hoy, University of Guelph, Ontario/Canada
Risk Classification and Social Welfare

13.30 h Coffee break

Michael Faure, University of Maastricht/The Netherlands
Risk Differentiation Endangered by Recent Policy Trends?

Yves Thiery/ Caroline Van Schoubroeck, University of Leuven/Belgium
Fairness and Equality in Insurance Classification

14.15 h Coffee break

14.30 h Guy Thomas, Kent University/U.K.
Some Novel Perspectives on Risk Classification

Michael Wolgast, German Insurance Association
Risk Classification and Public Intervention in the German Market: An Insurance Industry Perspective

15.50 h Break

16.00 h End of Session

18.00 h Evening Programme

Sight-seeing tour at Potsdamer Platz

19.45 h Dinner held by the German Insurance Association at Lutter & Wegner, Gendarmenmarkt

Friday, 17th June, 2005

09.00 h Opening

Donatella Porro/ Irene Luperto, University of Lecce/Italy
Dynamic Risk Classification in a Law and Economics Perspective: The Italian Experience

Susanne Pech, University of Linz/Austria
Adverse Selection with Individual- and Joint-Life Annuities

10.30 h Coffee Break

10.40 h Mary Kelly/ Norma Nielson, University of Calgary/Canada
Age as a Variable in Insurance Pricing and Risk Classification

Chwen-Chi Liu/ Chu-Shiu Li, Feng Chia University/Taiwan
Automobile Insurance Policy Options, Rating System, and Risk Classification

12.00 h Lunch

13.00 h Oliver Riedel, University of Giessen/Germany
Unisex-Tariffs in Health Insurance

Angus Macdonald, Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh/U.K.
Genetics and Insurance: Quantifying the Financial Impact of Genetic Information

Roger Van den Bergh, University of Rotterdam/The Netherlands
Compulsory Insurance of Loss to Property Caused by Natural Disasters: Competition or Solidarity?

15.00 h Closing

15.30 h Afternoon Programme

Berlin by Boat
Allianz Treptower Art Exhibition
Guided Tour and Buffet