

КЫРГЫЗСТАН

WORKSHOP “Panel Data and the Life in Kyrgyzstan Survey”

Venue: American University of Central Asia
Bishkek, Kyrgyz Republic
15 September 2011

AGENDA

08:30-09:00	Registration of participants
	POLICY PART OF THE WORKSHOP
09:00-09:30	Workshop Opening: Opening remarks and objectives of the workshop Zarylbek Kudabaev, Dean of Department of Economics, AUCA Tilman Brück, Head of Department of Development and Security, DIW Berlin Katja Meyer, Resident Representative, Friedrich Ebert Foundation
09:30-10:30	Keynote address: Advantages and Disadvantages of Panel Data Alexander Kremer, Country Manager Kyrgyz Republic, World Bank Discussant: Roman Mogilevsky, Director, CASE-Kyrgyzstan Session Chair: Tilman Brück
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-11:45	Panel Datasets in Central Asia Damir Esenaliev – Kyrgyz Integrated Household Survey Antje Kröger – Tajikistan Living Standard Survey Susan Steiner – Life in Kyrgyzstan Survey Session Chair: Tilman Brück
11:45-12:30	The Way Forward: Implications for Policy-Makers and Researchers Moderation by Tilman Brück, Head of Department of Development and Security, DIW Berlin
12:30-13:30	Lunch

КЫРГЫЗСТАН

	RESEARCH PART OF THE WORKSHOP
13:30-14:15	Research Paper 1: Intergenerational Mobility in Kyrgyzstan Damir Esenaliev, Doctorate Student, Department of Development and Security, DIW Berlin Session Chair: Roman Mogilevsky
14:15-15:00	Research Paper 2: Protecting the Poor Through the Kyrgyz Social Safety Net Aibek Baibagyshuulu, Poverty Economist, World Bank Session Chair: Roman Mogilevsky
15:00-15:15	Break
15:15 -16:00	Research Paper 3: Migration and Social Networks in Kyrgyzstan Bakhrom Mirkasimov, Doctorate Student, Humboldt University, Berlin Session Chair: Susan Steiner
16:00- 16:45	Research Paper 4: Labour Markets and the Financial Crisis: Evidence from Tajikistan Antje Kröger, Doctorate Student, Department of Development and Security, DIW Berlin Session Chair: Susan Steiner
16:45-17.00	Concluding Remarks Zarylbek Kudabaev, Dean of Economics Department, AUCA