

Post-Conflict Recovery and Development: The Case of Uganda Workshop of the Training and Mobility Network for the Economic Analysis of Conflict

23 – 24 April 2012

Economic Policy Research Center (EPRC)

Plot 51 Pool Road Makerere University, Kampala, Uganda

Agenda

23 April

08:30 – 09:00	Registration and coffee
09:00 – 09:30	Opening remarks by Sarah Ssewanyana, Executive Director, EPRC Introduction to the workshop by Tilman Brück, Project Coordinator, Humboldt University
09:30 – 10:15	Ibrahim Kasirye, EPRC Accountability and motivation in Uganda primary schools
10:15 – 11:00	Timothy Lubanga, Office of the Prime Minister A perspective of conflict in Northern Uganda
11:00 – 11:15	Coffee Break
11:15 – 12:15	Sarah Ssewanyana, EPRC Presentation title TBC
12:15 – 13:00	Bruno Yawe, Makerere University Technical efficiency of Uganda's primary schools
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 – 14:45	Fizal Buyinza, Makerere University Micro effects of women's education on contraceptive use and fertility: The case of Uganda
14:45 – 15:30	Nathan Fiala, DIW Employment generation in rural Africa
15:30 – 15:45	Coffee Break
15:45 – 16:30	Doug Parkerson, Innovations Poverty Action Innovations for Poverty Action: Experimental research in Uganda
16:30 – 17:30	Panel discussion
17:30	Close of the day
19:30	Dinner at Haandi Restaurant (7 Kampala Road)

Post-Conflict Recovery and Development: The Case of Uganda

Workshop of the Training and Mobility Network for the Economic Analysis of Conflict

24 April

08:30 – 09:00	Opening and Coffee
09:00 – 10:00	Tilman Brück, Humboldt University and DIW Identifying conflict and violence in micro-level surveys
10:00 – 10:40	Ghassan Baliki, DIW Socioeconomic and political prospects of the Palestinian people through the lens of conflict Discussants: Isin Tellioglu and Chi Primus Che
10:40 – 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00– 11:40	Margherita Calderone, DIW Bringing the bank to the doorstep. Uptake of a financial inclusion and training program Discussants: Jesse Willem d'Anjou and Karla Henning
11:40 – 12:20	Nathan Fiala, DIW TBC
12:20 – 13:00	Karla Henning, PlaNetGuarantee The effect of microinsurance on drivers of informal risk management in solidarity networks Discussants: Chi Primus Che and Juan-Carlos Muñoz
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 – 14:40	Kari Lipschutz, Oxford Policy Management Pressure points: A conceptual framework for mapping natural resource management networks Discussants: Nathan Fiala and Ghassan Baliki
14:40 – 15:20	Isin Tellioglu, Humboldt University Explaining civil conflict in Sub-Saharan Africa: A panel data approach Discussants: Nathan Fiala and Juan-Carlos Muñoz
15:20 – 15:40	Coffee Break
15:40 – 16:20	Chi Primus Che, PRIO Maternal and reproductive health and armed conflicts in Sub-Saharan Africa: A disaggregated study Discussants: Jesse Willem d'Anjou and Kari Lipschutz

- 16:20 – 17:00 Juan-Carlos Muñoz, Université libre de Bruxelles
Dropping-out of coffee under the threat of violence and the presence of illicit crops
Discussants: Karla Henning and Margherita Calderone
- 17:00 – 17:40 Jesse Willem d'Anjou, Université libre de Bruxelles
Micro-insurance in fragile states
Discussants: Margherita Calderone and Kari Lipschutz
- 17:40 – 18:00 Feedback and closing session

Training Camp of the Training and Mobility Network for the Economic Analysis of Conflict

25 April

08:00 – 13:00	Travel to Gulu
13:00 – 14:30	Lunch Break
15:00 – 18:00	Meet and greet with NGOs

26 April

08:00 – 13:00	Field visit with local NGO
13:00 – 14:30	Lunch with NGO staff
15:00 – 18:00	Field visit by teams

27 April

10:00 – 13:00	International Labour Organization and World Bank joint book launch on IE
13:00 – 14:30	Lunch with local researchers
15:00 – 18:00	Meet and greet with local Acholi researchers
19:00	Dinner with local Acholi researchers

28 April

08:00 – 20:00	Travel back to Kampala
---------------	------------------------