

The Publication Process

Author submits paper.

After acceptance for further peer review, the paper is published on the  discussion papers platform.

Registered readers and referees discuss and comment on the paper (for a maximum of 8 weeks).

The co-editor accepts or rejects the paper for publication as an article in .

Persistent and free access to articles, discussion papers and comments is ensured.

Prizes are awarded for the most outstanding papers in special fields.

Advisory Board

George A. Akerlof, University of California
Gary S. Becker, University of Chicago
Jagdish N. Bhagwati, Columbia University
Willem Buiter, London School of Economics and Political Science
Lawrence Christiano, Northwestern University
Alan Deardorff, University of Michigan
Avinash Dixit, Princeton University
Robert Feenstra, University of California
Richard B. Freeman, Harvard University
James J. Heckman, University of Chicago
Edward Leamer, University of Columbia
Assar Lindbeck, Stockholm University
Eric Maskin, School of Social Science
Robert Mundell, Columbia University
Maurice Obstfeld, University of California
Amartya Sen, Harvard University
A. Michael Spence, Stanford University
Guido Tabellini, IGER Bocconi University
Jeffrey G. Williamson, Harvard University

Sponsors

BASF
E.ON AG
O₂ Germany

Associate Partners

Financial Times Germany
ZBW (German National Library of Economics)

 is funded by the German Research Foundation DFG

Economics

New Journal in Economics

 Economics

is free, quick, and widely disseminated

 Economics

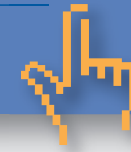

is democratic, convenient, and up to date

Please visit our website at:

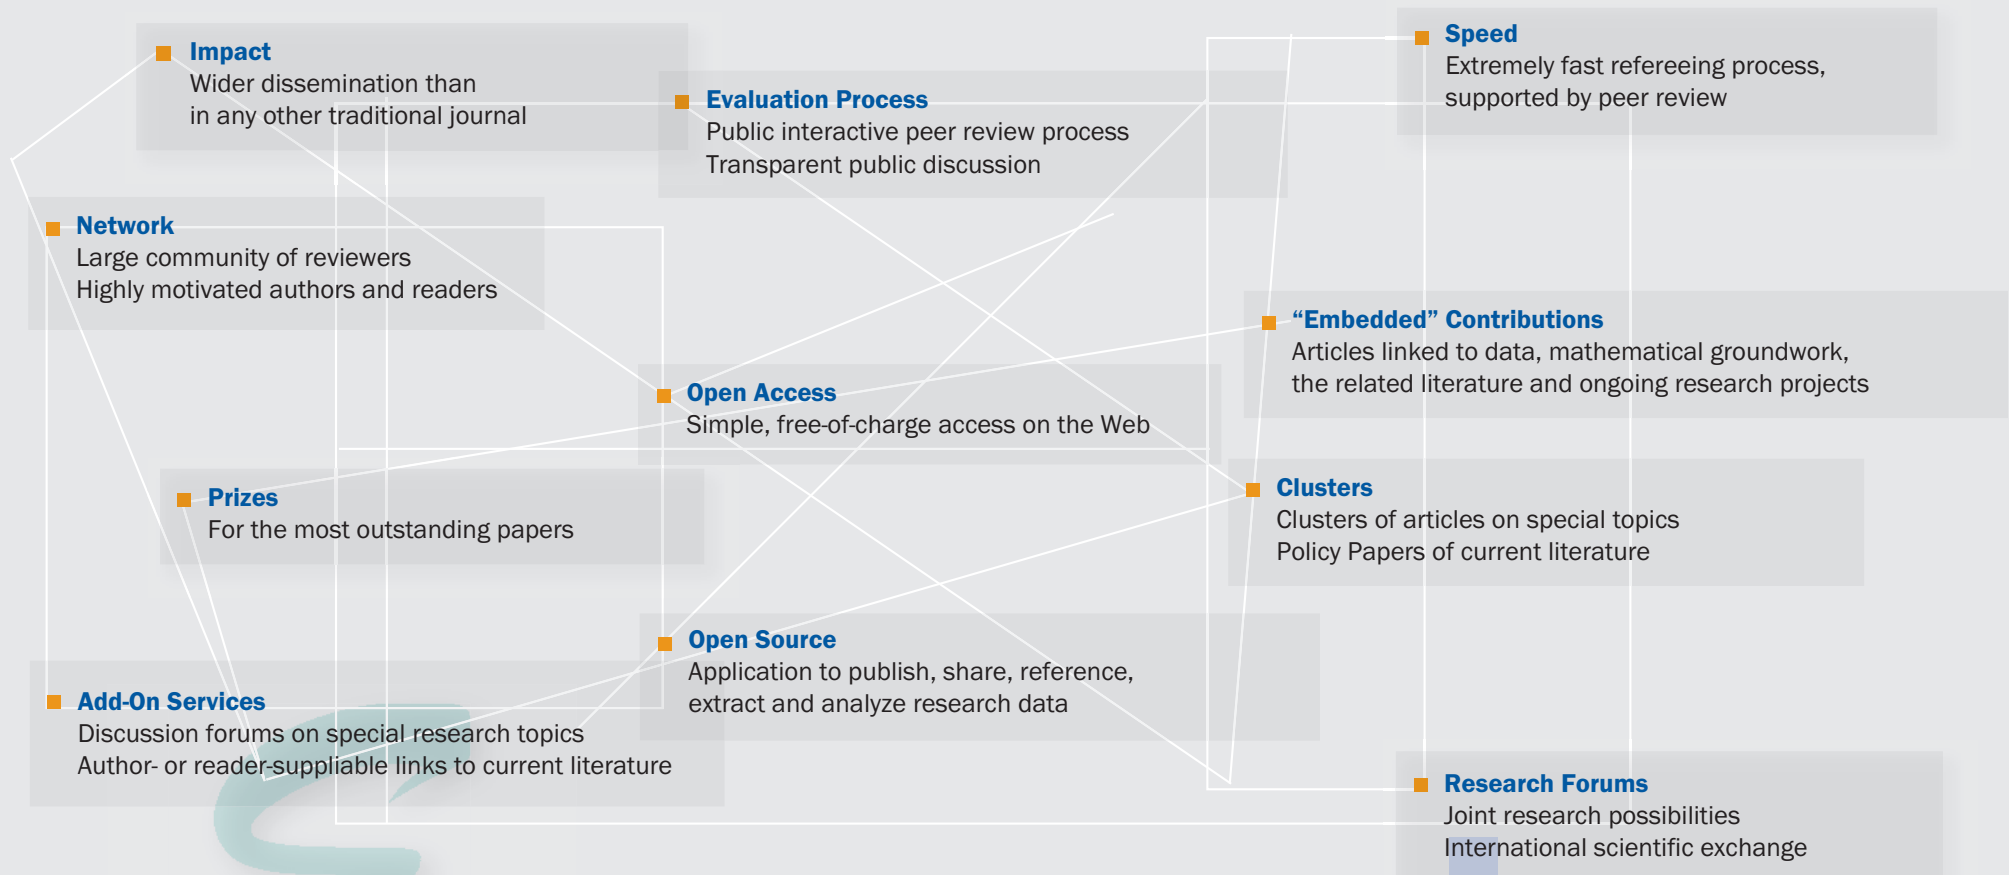

www.economics-ejournal.org

Further information is available by: e-mail: editorial-office@economics-ejournal.org phone: + 49-431-8814-226

Our Network of Advantages

Economics