

APPROVED BY

A. ARIUNZAYA, CHAIRMAN OF NSOM

AGENDA
THE DISSEMINATION WORKSHOP FOR
THE PROJECT “COPING WITH CLIMATE SHOCKS IN MONGOLIA”

Length of training: 02 September, 2016

Number of participants: 50

Venue: Room 401, Government Building #3, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia

Expected outcomes of the workshop:

Participants would get overall information about the project and panel survey conducted by jointly the NSOM and DIW Berlin, and detailed information for coping climate shocks, dzud's affect the well-being of households in terms of nutrition and food supply, what strategies households apply to insure themselves against dzuds and other shocks, and how shocks influence children's health and education.

08:30-09:00	Registration of participants	Ms. Ch. Tungalag Ms. N. Altantulkhuur
09:00-09:40	Opening session Welcome remarks by: Ms. A. Ariunzaya , Chairman of the NSOM Dr. Michael-Johannes Fernau , Envoy of the German Embassy Dr. Heike Bauer , Representing the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research (GFMES) Inaugural remarks by: Dr. Kati Kraehnert , German Institute for Economic Research (DIW Berlin)	Ms. B. Saranchimeg
09:40-10:20	Session 1: Introduction of the household panel data: Survey design, fieldwork, data quality and lessons learned Chair : Mr. Ch. Tsevegдорж , General Manager, NSOM Presenter: Ms. B. Saranchimeg , Senior officer, CSDD, NSOM – The session will be allotted to (i) introduce survey design including sampling and questionnaire design; (ii) discuss organization of fieldwork and main challenges faced in data collection; (iii) discuss data quality & address important issues; and (iv) discuss low attrition rate and identify lessons learned. Summary by the Chair	Ms. Ch. Tungalag Mr. I. Enkhbaatar
10:20-10:35	Tea break	Ms. Ch. Tungalag Ms. N. Altantulkhuur
10:35-11:25	Session 2: Effects of climate shocks Chair : Ms. A. Ariunzaya , Chairman of the NSOM Presenter: Ms. Kati Kraehnert , German Institute for Economic Research (DIW Berlin) Presentation of research results <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Index-based weather insurance and recovery from dzud (b) The impact of dzud on child height (c) The impact of dzud on education (d) Food consumption during dzud (e) The impact of shocks on nutrient consumption 	Ms. Ch. Tungalag Mr. I. Enkhbaatar

	- The session will be allotted to (i) introduce main findings of the each research; (ii) discuss conclusions derived from the research. Summary by the Chair
11:25-12:00	Session 3: Research recommendations and Policy implications derived from survey results Chair : Ms. D. Oyunchimeg, Director of the Population and Social Statistics Department, NSOM Presenters: Ms. Kati Kraehnert, German Institute for Economic Research (DIW Berlin) Ms. B. Saranchimeg, Senior officer, CSDD, NSOM - The session will be allotted to (i) introduce a possibility to use survey data for researches; (ii) discuss research importance of the panel survey data; (iii) identify policy recommendations derived from research; (iv) discuss policy implications derived from the panel survey results; (v) identify applications of panel data for formulating policies, programs and coping strategies. Summary by the Chair	Ms. Ch. Tungalag Mr. I. Enkhbaatar
12:00-12:40	Session 4: Discussion (questions and answers) - The session will be allotted to (i) introduce a possibility to use survey data for researches; (ii) discuss organization of fieldwork and main challenges faced in data collection; (iii) discuss data quality & address important issues; and (iv) discuss low attrition rate and identify lessons learned.	Ms. Kati Kraehnert Ms. B. Saranchimeg Ms. Ch. Tungalag Mr. I. Enkhbaatar
12:40-13:00	Closing remarks by: Ms. A. Ariunzaya, Chairman of the NSOM Dr. Heike Bauer, representing the GFMES	Ms. Kati Kraehnert Ms. B. Saranchimeg Ms. Ch. Tungalag Mr. I. Enkhbaatar