Reading Aid

This representation of the questionnaire contains the same information as the portal paneldata.org.

Here, in addition to the question number, question text, interviewer instructions, and answer options, you find printed in green the file name and the variable name with the variable label, which contains information from the question. If you see rows of green lines below the answer option, the questionnaire defines several variables or information is stored in more than one dataset.

The routing by filters is depicted in blue.

Each variable is preceded by an identifier, which usually contains the question number and which is used when the variable is used in filters in subsequent questions. Such filters are usually placed as input filters (gatekeepers) at the beginning of a question. An identifier that is referred to in the input filter of a subsequent question is marked yellow as an example.

This reading aid does not cover a few exceptional cases: If the filter (as gatekeeper) only affects one of several variables for a question, the filter is printed in blue behind the variable. There you will also find a "go to" command in the form 2 @ Q73. Here, the questionnaire skips to question 73 if answer 2 was given.

Phrases that are not already translated in English are displayed in German and preceded by [de].

109 In many cases, scientific researchers can only make accurate statements about people's current working and living conditions and how they change over time if they have information from both employees and employers. We therefore regularly ask the participants in "Living in Germany" for the names and addresses of their employers. We would like to ask you for this information now. The companies are then questioned by our survey institute about the company situation. In addition, publicly available information, and other relevant company data from verified external sources are added to expand the scientific analysis. The external sources include public registers and databases as well as commercial providers of company information.

Of course, we will ensure that you remain completely anonymous and that all data protection regulations are strictly observed. No information will be passed on that would allow you to be identified as an individual. This confidentiality also applies, of course, to the information provided by your employer.

Please state the name and address of the local operating unit or office.

We are referring here to the local operating unit or office of the company where you are currently working or where you last worked. Local operating units include manufacturing plants, workshops, branch offices, or subsidiaries. We are not referring to the company or agency as a whole. Please answer based on your current or most recent main job. Please give the exact name of the local operating unit – in other words, not just "bakery" or "hair salon" but the exact name of the bakery or hair salon (for example, "Acme Bakery"); not "Berlin Police" or "Munich Hospital" but the name of the police station or hospital (for example, "Police Directorate 3, Section 32" or "Großhadern Clinic").

111 In many cases, researchers can only make statements about the working and living conditions of the self-employed if they have information about both the person themselves and their company. This is why we regularly ask the self-employed in “Living in Germany” for the name and address of their company. We would also like to ask you for this information. This information is then used to add publicly available information, and other relevant company data from verified external sources and to expand the scientific analysis. The external sources include public registers and databases as well as commercial providers of company information.

Of course, we will ensure that your anonymity is maintained at all times and that all data protection regulations are strictly adhered to. No information will be passed on that could be used to draw conclusions about you or your company.

Please give us the name and address of your business / company.

B09 Attitudes towards Artificial Intelligence

SPLIT1;paidsplit=1

179 We would like to know your opinion on artificial intelligence. Artificial Intelligence refers to technical devices that can perform tasks that typically require human intelligence. It enables machines to sense, act, and adapt autonomously. Artificial Intelligence can be part of a computer program or an online application, but it can also be found in various machines such as robots. It can be used in the workplace, in medicine and nursing, as well as in education and training.
