Reading Aid

This representation of the questionnaire contains the same informations as the portal paneldata.org.

The diagram shows a questionnaire entry with the following components and labels:

- question number: Q72
- question text: Now we would like to know something about you personally. Were you born in Germany?
- interviewer instruction: This refers to Germany or the Federal Republic of Germany or the German Democratic Republic in the national borders at the time of your birth.
- answer options:
 - Yes (1)
 - No (2)
 - No answer (-1)
- in blue: identifier for filter: Q72;lsta1
- in blue: filter with condition: LSTA1=2
- in green: dataset name, variable name, variable label: bio I0013 born in Germany
- grey bar: open or numeric answer: Q73;lsta2 bio I0016 Country Of Birth

Here, in addition to the question number, question text, interviewer instructions, and answer options, you find printed in green the file name and the variable name with the variable label, which contains information from the question. If you see rows of green lines below the answer option, the questionnaire defines several variables or informations are stored in more than one data set.

The routing by filters is depicted in blue. Each variable is preceded by an identifier (which generally contains the question number, marked here with a yellow dotted line), which is given, if the variable is used in filters in a subsequent question. Such filters are usually shown (as gatekeepers) at the beginning of the question.

This reading aid does not cover a few exceptional cases: If the filter (as gatekeeper) only affects one of several variables for a question, the filter is printed in blue behind the variable. There you will also find a "go to" command in the form 2 @ Q73. Here, the questionnaire skips to question 73 if the variable results in value of 2.

Phrases that are not already translated in English are displayed in German and preceded by [de].

FinB1a We offer you an investment opportunity. Please imagine to invest 50.000 EUR from your own wealth. You can split the amount into the following two investments: first a commercial paper circulated by the government that guarantees you an interest rate of 4%. Hereinafter this commercial paper will be called „Federal Government Bond“, second a bundle of shares, hereinafter called „Fund“. The gain or loss of this Fund is based on the German Stock Index (DAX), which summarizes the performance of 30 German major enterprises. The Fund comes off either 10 percentage points superior to the DAX or 10 percentage points inferior to the DAX. Which of the two options applies to you will come to know soon. Depending on your decision we will actually pay you out in a smaller scale. Take all the time you need to read the instructions and think about your decision.

FinB1b As described above, please allocate the investment of 50.000EUR on the Federal Government Bond and Fund. We then calculate the achieved earnings of this investment. For the money you invest in the Federal Government Bond, this calculation is simple: with the 4% interest rate you will have a secure profit of 4 EUR for every 100 EUR that you invest. To determine gains and losses on investments in the Fund, we use historical DAX gains and losses of the years 1951 to 2010. The computer will randomly select one year from this time period and calculate for this year, what would have become of the amount you invested. Additionally it was randomly determined by the computer that you will receive 10 more percentage points. If the DAX has achieved... (a) ...a profit of +15% in the randomly selected year, the fund makes a profit of 15% + 10% = 25%. This would mean that you gain 25 EUR for every 100 EUR that you have invested in the Fund. (b) ...a loss of -15% in the randomly selected year, the fund would make a loss of -15% + 10% = -5%. This would mean that you lose -5EUR for every 100 EUR that you have invested in the Fund. (c) ... a loss of -2% in the randomly selected year, the fund would make a profit of -2% + 10% = 8%. Your total profit is simply the sum of the profit that you achieved by investing in the Federal Government Bond and the Fund. This will be the amount we pay you out on a smaller scale. For each 2000 EUR you get 1 EUR paid out in cash at the end of experiment.

FinB1c In summary: Thus the Federal Government Bund yields a return of 4% in any case, while the Fund may obtain every DAX gains and losses of the years 1951 to 2010, plus the 10 percentage points. How much of the 50.000EUR do you invest in the Federal Government Bond and how much in the Fund? Please make sure that the two amounts add up to exactly 50.000 EUR.

In Federal Government Bond, euros:

In Fund, euros:

FinB2a As you know the fund's performance depends on the DAX in the years 1951 to 2010. The Fund is always 10 percentage points higher than the DAX in one of those years. Following, we wanted to ask you how you assess the potential returns by the Fund. For this, we summarize possible losses and gains of the Fund on the next screen in following seven ranges: loss from 60 % to 90 % ; loss from 30% to 60%; loss from 0% to 30%; profit from 0% to 30%; profit from 30% and 60 % ; profit from 60 % to 90 %; profit of 90 % to 120 %. On the next screen there are 20 boxes over the seven ranges. Show us how often you suspect the fund in each area by clicking on the box above the seven ranges. By checking the box you show us how likely you think it is that your fund made a loss or profit in the corresponding area. For example, if marking no box in a certain area, you are stating that you are sure that the loss or gain of your fund is not within this range. - By highlighting one or two boxes in a certain range, you express that you believe a loss or gain of this dimension to be possible but not very likely. - More boxes, up to 20 in one range, stand for correspondingly higher probabilities.

FinABC3a Please mark the 20 boxes so that they reflect your estimation of the change in value of the Fund. Pay attention to all possible opportunities arising from the historical DAX development and the increase of 10 percentage points. If you would like to change your investment decision at this time again, press "Back".

FinABC5a After it was about the development of a Fund coupled to the DAX in the previous questions, we would now like to know what you expect for the future development of the DAX itself. In the next screen, state where you see the DAX in a year, expressed in profit or loss compared to the present value. We summarize the potential gains and losses in the seven major ranges again. We also ask you here to take all possible developments of the DAX into consideration. Then show us how likely you think the particular gains and losses are. Please express this by mark the 20 boxes once again. A box here again stands for a frequency of 1 in 20, thus 5 percent. By checking the boxes you show us how likely you consider the change in value of the DAX in one of the seven ranges during one year. For example, if you are not highlighting any box in a certain range, you are making the statement that you are certain that the change in value of the DAX is not within this range. By highlighting one or two boxes in one range, you consider the change in value of the DAX in this range to be possible but not very likely. More boxes - up to 20 in one area - stand for correspondingly higher probabilities.

FinABC5b Please mark the 20 boxes so that they reflect your estimation of the DAX gains and losses over the next 12 months, thus until day/month/year.
