SOEP-IS 2018 – Questionnaire for the SOEP Innovation Sample

SOEP-IS Group

Running since 1984, the German Socio-Economic Panel study (SOEP) is a wide-ranging representative longitudinal study of private households, located at the German Institute for Economic Research, DIW Berlin.

The aim of the SOEP Survey Papers Series is to thoroughly document the survey's data collection and data processing. The SOEP Survey Papers is comprised of the following series:

Series A – Survey Instruments (Erhebungsinstrumente)

Series B – Survey Reports (Methodenberichte)

Series C – Data Documentation (Datendokumentationen)

Series D – Variable Descriptions and Coding

Series E – SOEPmonitors

Series F – SOEP Newsletters

Series G – General Issues and Teaching Materials

The SOEP Survey Papers are available at <http://www.diw.de/soepsurveyspapers>

Reading Aid

This representation of the questionnaire contains the same informations as the portal paneldata.org.

The diagram illustrates the structure of a questionnaire entry. It shows two questions, Q72 and Q73, with their respective text, instructions, and answer options. The labels on the left indicate the different parts of the entry: question number, question text, interviewer instruction, answer options, in blue: identifier for filter, in blue: filter with condition, and grey bar: open or numeric answer. The text for Q72 is: "Q72 Now we would like to know something about you personally. Were you born in Germany?" followed by the instruction "This refers to Germany or the Federal Republic of Germany or the German Democratic Republic in the national borders at the time of your birth." and answer options "Yes 1", "No 2", and "No answer -1". The variable labels for Q72 are "Q72:lsta1 bio I0013 born in Germany". The text for Q73 is: "Q73 What country were you born in?" followed by the instruction "Please enter the current name!". The variable labels for Q73 are "Q73:lsta2 bio I0016 Country Of Birth". A legend on the right indicates that text in green represents the dataset name, variable name, and variable label.

Here, in addition to the question number, question text, interviewer instructions, and answer options, you find printed in green the file name and the variable name with the variable label, which contains information from the question. If you see rows of green lines below the answer option, the questionnaire defines several variables or informations are stored in more than one data set.

The routing by filters is depicted in blue.

Each variable is preceded by an identifier, which usually contains the question number and which is used when the variable is used in filters in subsequent questions. Such filters are usually placed as input filters (gatekeepers) at the beginning of a question. An identifier that is referred to in the input filter of a subsequent question is marked yellow as an example.

This reading aid does not cover a few exceptional cases: If the filter (as gatekeeper) only affects one of several variables for a question, the filter is printed in blue behind the variable. There you will also find a "go to" command in the form 2 @ Q73. Here, the questionnaire skips to question 73 if answer 2 was given.

Phrases that are not already translated in English are displayed in German and preceded by [de].

Q1 [Attention: according to our information, the questions about the household for this household should already be available. Do you still want to answer the household questions?] Is the surveyed person the head of the household or the person answering the questions about the household? If known, this person is tagged in My Infratest or in the household information.

Important note: Generally, the questions on the budget must be filled in once for each household. Without this part of the question, all other questions are unusable for data analysis!

[Q750,2 & Q748,2 & Q745,1]

Q752 This year, as a small attention to your time, we have either a microfiber towel and a writing set. We have determined by chance that you will get the writing set. It's yours. At the end of the survey, you have the option to exchange your writing set for the microfiber towel. Please show both gifts briefly and hand over the writing set. If the target wants to exchange the gift right away: I have to follow the instructions of the CAPI and it states that the exchange will happen only at the end.

[Q750,1 & Q748,3 & Q745,1]

Q753 This year, as a small attention to your time, we have either a microfiber towel or a writing set. We have determined by chance that you will get the microfiber towel. It's yours. Please show both household gifts briefly and hand over the microfiber towel. Do not mention the exchange option at the end. If the target person prefers and wants to exchange the other gift: I am sorry but I have to follow the instructions of the CAPI and I can't Enter the writing set, as the selection of the gift is stored in this way and I can't change that. If the target person asks why both gifts are shown, although only one is handed over: The selection here is recreated according to a tombola, where you see all the prizes and only get one item.

Q80 We have a small interactive task for you. I would ask you to do this task yourself. Since it is very important that you see the screen well in the task, we should sit down in a way so that you are not blinded.

For the reliability of the test, it is important that the surveyed person finds itself in a place with the most balanced ambient brightness possible. Please go with the surveyed person a room inside and switch on the lights, so that nobody can be blinded from outside. If necessary, please also adjust the brightness of the PC screen and rotate the screen in such a way that the surveyed person recognizes the screen well. At the same time the screen should not appear too bright either.

Please hand over the laptop and pen to the respondent. Please show the respondent how to click with the pen.

Please make sure that only the respondent can see the screen before starting the test!

Q81 This test shows you a series of FARBWÖRTERN (SCHWARZ, BLAU, GELB, GREEN, ROT). These words themselves are written in different FARBEN. The color of the word matches the word (e.g. the word BLAU written in blue) and sometimes does not match (e.g. the word BLAU written in red). Your task is to specify as soon as possible the FARBE in which the word is GESCHRIEBEN, whether the color matches the word or not. To do this, use the pen to click one of the choices. Try to pay attention only to the color and not to the word. Try to run the test on its own and without the help of the interviewer. For the test, please only use the pen that was handed over to you by the interviewer! At the end of the test, you can see your response times. Click "Next" to continue.

Q83 Stroop

There are 5 congruent pairs. A congruent color-word pair consists of one word (SCHWARZ, BLAU, GELB, GREEN, ROT) and the same color. There are 15 incongruent pairs. A color-word pair consists of one word and a different color. 20 color-word pairs are displayed. Please form a variable in which the color and word are stored for each pair. Please also form a variable that stores the time for each of the 20 color word pairs. Please also form a variable in which it is stored whether the color of the word was specified correctly/incorrectly for each individual pair. In addition, form a variable in which the sum of the correct data from the 5 congruents/15 incongruents is stored. The order of the query of the total of 20 pairs is randomized. Please also create a variable in which the exact order of the pairs is stored.

Q85 The test is now over. Here you can see the number of cases where you have correctly specified the color of the word and your average response times. Color and word match [number of correct congruents][in [number] seconds] Color and word do not match [number of correct mismatches][in [number] seconds] Most people respond much faster to words that match the color than to words where the color does not match. For many people, reading is an automatic process that can only be suppressed with difficulty and here the reaction time is extended.

Q98 Why not?UE24 Innomodule Gorilla Test - Part 2

Q101 You will now see a short film. In this film, rectangles and circles will move around within a rectangular frame. Some of the shapes are white and some of the shapes are black. Occasionally, a shape will touch the top, bottom, or right or left side of the border. Your task is to pay attention to the movements of all [rectangles/circles/white shapes/black shapes] and to count in the head how often the [rectangles/circles/white shapes/black shapes] touch any side of the border. After the movie, you will be asked to specify the number of touches you have counted. This is not an easy task, so please be very attentive. You will receive 1 Euro for the processing of this task. For the correctly named number of touches you get 4 euros. The payment will be made at the end of the questionnaire.

Q102 How often have the [rectangles/circles/white shapes/black shapes] touched the frame?

UE47 Donations A Interviewer

[Q194,2]

Q200 And now a question about your donations. We understand donations here as giving money for social, ecclesiastical, cultural, community, and charitable aims, without receiving any direct compensation in return. These donations can be large sums of money but also smaller sums, for example, the change one puts into a collection box. We also count church offerings. Did you donate money last year, in 2017 – not counting membership fees?

Q215 Now, we would like to know how well the following statements describe you as a person.

Please answer on the following scale: 0 equals "does not describe me at all", 10 equals "describes me perfectly". You can use the values in between to make your estimate.

Q216 Now to something else that may seem a little unusual to you at first glance. We would now like to measure your finger length - both the length of your ring finger and the length of your index finger. For these purposes, I also have a digital measuring slider with me in order to have an exact measurement. Before we begin: Do you agree with the measurement? We measure the length of your index and ring fingers as there is a theory that the length ratio of these two fingers can tell how high your prenatal testosterone levels were. That is, your testosterone levels in the womb before you were even born. Prenatal testosterone levels are said to be related to the length ratio of these two fingers as well as to the development of the brain and thus to various behavioral properties. With this module, the researchers are trying to find out whether this is actually the case. To ensure that your subsequent answers are not affected, we can only tell you at the end of the interview what their behavioural characteristics are.

If you have any questions about the meaning of this module, please say the following:

[Q218,2]

Q218

For interviewers only: If the target person is missing one or more fingers of the left hand or if there are serious injuries, please skip the measurement and continue with your right hand.

Please select digital sliders and the instructions for “finger length” and measure the index and ring finger in the same way as stated in the instructions. Please start by measuring the index finger of the left hand and enter all results into the CAPI-program.

Please measure now the finger length of the [index finger/ring finger] of the left hand. Please enter the length exactly on a decimal place! Please separate the first decimal place with a dot.

Millimeters

[20 TO 110]

Q220 If you divide the length of your left index finger by the length of your left ring finger, you will get a value of [number]echLinks. At the end of this module, we are happy to share the assumptions behind the finger length measurement.

Note in case of queries:

[nRechLinks < 0.8 \nRechLinks > 1.1]

Q221

The ratio of the measurement is outside the usual statistical framework. Please repeat the measurement of the left hand.

Please measure now the finger length of the [index finger/ring finger] of the right hand. Please enter the length exactly on a decimal place! Please separate the first decimal place with a dot.

Millimeters [20 TO 110]

Q226 If you divide the length of your right index finger by the length of your right ring finger, you will get a value of [number]echRechts. At the end of this module, we are happy to share the assumptions behind the finger length measurement.

Note in case of queries:

[nRechRechts < 0.8 \nRechRechts > 1.1]

Q227

The ratio of the measurement is outside the usual statistical framework. Please repeat the measurement of the right hand.

Q228 [Length index finger left/length ring finger left]

Please measure again the finger length of the [index finger/ring finger] of the right hand. Please enter the length exactly on a decimal place! Please separate the first decimal place with a dot.

Millimeters [20 TO 110]

[nRechRechts < 0.8 \nRechRechts > 1.1]

Q229 If you divide the length of your left index finger by the length of your left ring finger, you will get a value of [number]echRechts2. At the end of this module, we are happy to share the assumptions behind the finger length measurement.

Note in case of queries:

Q230 We are now at the end of the “finger length” module. We now come back to another subject. It is assumed that a smaller quotient (i.e. the result of “index finger divided by ring fingers”) is more likely to speak for male characteristics such as higher risk-taking or higher sportiness. The background is that, according to some research, a smaller quotient is supposed to speak for higher prenatal testosterone levels. However, the results are contradictory and these assumptions are not always confirmed. That is why the researchers now want to re-examine this in the Innovation Survey.

If the target person is interested, the hypotheses of finger length measurement (in professional circles: 2D:4D) can be communicated:

UE64 Innomodule Comparison, Social Distance - Part 3

Q251A Most people compare themselves from time to time with others. For example they may compare the way they feel, their opinions, their abilities, and/or their situation with those of other people. There is nothing particularly “good” or “bad” about this type of comparison, and some people do it more than others. We would like to find out how often do you compare yourself with other people. To do that we would like you to indicate how much you agree with each statement below, by using the following scale.

Please answer using the following scale. The value 1 means: I don't agree at all. The value 5 means: I completely agree. With the values between 1 and 5, you can state your opinion.

UE66 Innomodule Income Distribution II - Part 1

Q252 We now come to another issue, which is, among other things, about 'income'.

The following questions should only be heard by the target person and not by other household members. Please make sure that no other people of survey age are within earshot.

Q253 For our next module “income distribution”, we would like to know the gross income (before any taxes) of your household in the year 2016. This includes your wage, earnings from self-employment, investment income, pension payments and other private payments such as alimony. If you do not know it exactly, please try to estimate it as precisely as possible.

Q255 You reported that your gross household income in the year 2017 was EUR [Amount] and that your household had [Number] members. This means that the gross income per capita in your household in 2017 was EUR [Amount]. We are now going to ask some questions about this gross income per capita. We are interested in your estimate on how your income compares to that of other people. Please be truthful and as accurate as possible in your estimate. You can win money depending on the accuracy of your estimate. For both of the following questions, you will get 20 EUR at the end of the interview if your estimate is correct. If your estimate is not correct, you will not get any money.

Upon inquiry, please answer: At the end of the module, we will determine whether your estimate was correct. However, the payment will not be made until the end of the interview.

Please click “Continue” and give the laptop to the participant.

[nKeinSinn <> 1] [Q257;1]

Q257 What percentage of the German population do you think had a total annual gross household income per capita lower than yours in 2017?

Please give your answer in percent. 0 percent means that you are the poorest person in Germany. 100 percent means that you are the richest person in Germany. You can use the values in between to make your estimate.

UE67 Innovation module financial market expectation

Q267 We would like to talk to you about your expectations regarding the stock market.

Please click "Continue" and give the laptop to the participant.

Q268A Please imagine investing 50,000 € from your own property. You can spread this amount on these two investments: 1. government bonds of the German state that yield an interest of 4% guaranteed. 2. The German stock index DAX that combines the economic development of 30 large companies from Germany. Please imagine further that the earnings of the investment will be paid out exactly one year from now. The calculation is as follows: 1. To calculate the return of your investment in federal bonds is straight forward: An interest of 4% yields you 4€ for certain for each 100€ you have invested. 2. If you win or lose with your investment in the DAX depends on profit or loss that the DAX undergoes in the next year till [current day].[current month].[Survey year + 1]. If the DAX, for example, increases by 15% you will gain 15€ profit for each 100€ you have invested. Vice versa, if the DAX decreases by 15% you will lose 15€ for each 100€ you have invested. Profit and loss behave analogously for any other percentage gain or loss of the DAX. Please imagine we would determine the investments in one year from now and pay out both investments.

Q268B It might not be easy to come to a decision. That's why we provide additional information. We have randomly chosen two years from 1951-2017. In these two years, the DAX yielded, first, a [profit/loss] of [profit/loss] percent, and second, a [profit/loss] of [profit/loss] percent.

Q268C In summary: The Federal Government Bond yields a return of 4% in any case, while investments in the DAX are linked to the actual development of the DAX over the next year on a 1:1 ratio. Please take your time to consider how you would split up the 50,000 EUR between the two investments. How much of the 50,000 EUR do you invest in the Federal Government Bond and how much in the DAX?

In the Federal Government Bond, EUR: [0 TO 50000]

In the DAX, EUR: [0 TO 50000]

Q268C:fe02bund inno fe02bund How much do you invest in the Bundesanleihe (federal bond)

Please make sure that the two amounts add up to exactly 50,000 EUR.

UE68 Innomodule Stroop-Test - Part 5: Symbols and Numbers-Test

Q277 Let us now turn to another subject. We have prepared a small test for you called the "Symbols and Numbers-Test". In this task, each number from 1 to 9 is associated with a specific symbol (see top bar). The following task is to enter the correct numbers for each character as soon as possible. You can practice this task first. Please consider this bar

Q281 Which number belongs to which symbol?

Enter number and then quickly to the next page!

Q282 Many thanks, that was the example. Now we move on to the actual task itself. You have 1 ½ seconds. Can we start?

The test is constructed in a way, so that the interviewee can type in the numbers him-/herself. Should this not be possible for any reasons, the entry can exceptionally be made by the interviewer. The test then changes such that the interviewee tells the interviewer the number and the interviewer types in the number.

- Yes, start (respondent types him-/herself) 1

UE70 Innomodule Financial Decisions II - Part 1

[Q285,2,97]

Q285 Now to something else: In the following, we ask you and other participants in the Innovation Survey to make a decision for which you can earn additional money. At the same time, however, this decision also influences the earnings of other people. One in five decisions is implemented in the same way as it is described. Each participant in the Innovation Survey has the same chance that their decision will be implemented. If your decision is implemented, you will receive the payout at the end of the survey.

Please make sure that, besides the interviewee and the interviewer, there are not other persons within earshot.

Please kindly point out to the target person that only after the entire survey has been completed. the target should talk to another person from the household about the following questions.

UE71 Group 1

Q287

Please hand over the laptop to the interviewee now.

Q288 As you know, you will receive EUR 10 to answer the Innovation Sample questionnaire. A few days ago, we recruited other people through an internet platform to conduct a similar survey. These people also earn 10 euros to answer the questions. We have now assigned you to one of these people. You now have the option to take up to 10 euros from this person. The other person has no way to take money from you or anyone else. As payment, you will receive the 10 euros for answering the questions and additionally the amount you take from the other person. For example, if you take 10 euros, you will receive an additional 10 euros. If you take 5 euros, you will get 5 euros extra and if you take 0 euros, then you will get nothing extra. The other person's payment is reduced by the amount you take. We now ask you to make your decision on your own.

The other person was informed that there is someone that has this option.

Q289 How much do you want to take from the other person?

You can choose an amount from 0 to 10 euros. If your decision is realized, the amount will be subtracted from the other person and you will receive the amount at the end of the interview.

EUR [0 TO 10]

Q290 Other participants in the Innovation Survey have also been assigned to another person and have made a decision in the exact same situation as you. What do you think, how much did the other participants take on average? If your answer is in the range of +/-5% of the correct answer, you have the chance to win one of 10 prizes in the amount of 50 euros. You can choose from 0 to 10 euros.

UE72 Group 2Q293

Please hand over the laptop to the interviewee now.

Q294 As you know, you will receive EUR 10 to answer the Innovation Sample questionnaire. A few days ago, we recruited other people through an internet platform to conduct a similar survey. These people also earn 10 euros to answer the questions. We have now assigned you to exactly 100 of these people. You now have the option to take up to 10 cents from each of these 100 persons. The other 100 persons have no way to take money from you or anyone else. As payment, you will receive the 10 euros for answering the questions and additionally the amount you take from the other person. For example, if you take 10 cents from each person, you will receive an additional 10 euros (= 100 x 10 cents). If you take 5 cents from each person, you will get 5 euros extra (= 100 x 5 cents) and if you take 0 cents, then you will get nothing extra. The other 100 persons' payment is reduced by the amount you take. We now ask you to make your decision on your own.

The 100 people have been informed that there is someone who has this option.

Each of these 100 persons is also associated with 99 other participants in the Innovation Survey. These 99 participants, like you, have the option to take up to 10 cents from the 100 people assigned to you.

Q295 How much do you want to take from each of the other 100 persons?

You can choose an amount from 0 to 10 cents. If your decision is realized, the amount will be subtracted from the other person and you will receive the amount at the end of the interview.

Cents from each person

No answer

Q296 Other participants in the Innovation Survey were also assigned to 100 other people and made a decision in the exact same situation as you. What do you think, how much did the other participants take on average? If your answer is in the range of +/-5% of the correct answer, you have the chance to win one of 10 prizes in the amount of 50 euros. You can choose an amount from 0 to 10 cents.

Cents from each person

If you are one of the winners, the profit will be sent to you by cheque after the end of the field time. If multiple participants are correct, the 10 winners will be randomly selected from among these participants. We can only determine the winners after the field ends, as the accuracy of your response depends on the actual information provided by the other respondents.

Q331 The following questions deal with partnership and marriage or registered same-sex partnerships (eingetragene gleichgeschlechtliche Partnerschaft). All of these questions deal with your relationship, whether you are married or not. Some questions deal with your current relationship and others deal with past relationships. We will start with your current relationship A and then ask you to look back on relationships you had before B, C and D. In the case of past relationships, we are talking about relationships that lasted six months or longer.

Whenever referring to marriage, we are also referring to registered same-sex partnerships!

UE94 Innomodule Income Distribution II - Part 2

UE95 Redistribution and globalization

Q414 Now we are going to talk about redistribution. Redistribution of income means that the state reduces the differences in income between citizens via taxes and transfer payments.

Q415 How much redistribution of income between the citizens of Germany do you support? No redistribution means that the state does not interfere in the distribution of income. Complete redistribution means that everyone earns the same income after redistribution is conducted.

Please answer on the following scale: 1 means "no redistribution". 10 means "complete redistribution". You can use the values in between to state your opinion.

Q424 Based on your per capita gross income of EUR [per capita income = gross income HH / persons in HH], you have previously estimated that [[Estimated proportion of people who had a lower per capita gross income in Germany in 2017]% of the German population and [estimated proportion of persons who had a lower per capita gross income in the world in 2017]% of the world population/[estimated proportion of persons) who had a lower per capita gross income in the world in 2017]% of the world population and [estimated proportion of people who had a lower per capita gross income in Germany in 2017]% of the German population] a lower per capita gross household income than you have. We have now calculated on the basis of the most recent official data how many [Germans or how many people in the world/people in the world or how many Germans] actually have a lower per capita gross household income than you. In other words, we have calculated the actual rank you actually occupy in the respective distribution of income. We now want to know how much this information is worth to you. In the following we present 10 situations. In any situation, you can choose between information about your rank in the distribution of income and a monetary amount. The various amounts of money have been determined in advance and vary between 10 Cents and 10 Euros. In situation 1 we ask you, for example, whether you would rather have 10 Cents or if you want to know your rank in the distribution of income [in Germany/worldwide]. In the end, the computer randomly selects one of the 10 situations and your decision in that situation will be executed. This means that if you have chosen the information in the chosen situation, you will then be informed how many [Germans or people in the world/people in the world or Germans] actually have a lower per capita gross household income than you have and if you have chosen the amount of money, you will receive this amount of money paid out at the end of the questionnaire.

Please read the introductory text and then hand over the laptop to the target person for self-filling. Show beforehand how to get to the next page, make text inputs, and select a response.

Q489

For the following questions, please hand over the laptop to the interviewee.

Q490 Now to another topic: Suppose there is a way to reduce your taxes by 10%. However, you find that you do not actually meet the requirements for this. However, you also know that there is no way for the tax office to check the conditions for tax reduction. Would you still take advantage of the possibility of tax reduction?

Please answer using the following scale: 1 means "Very unlikely" 5 means "Very likely". You can downgrade your answers using the steps in between.

Very unlikely 1	1
3	3
4	4
Very likely 5	5
No answer	-1

Q491 And now to an ethical question: Imagine a train approaching a group of five people who would be killed if the train was not stopped. You now have the opportunity to save these 5 people by diverting the train to another track. On this track there is another person who would die as a result. How much do you agree with the following statement? It is morally justifiable to divert the train and accept the death of a human being in order to prevent the deaths of five people.

Please answer using the following scale. The value 1 means: I don't agree at all. The value 5 means: I completely agree. With the values between 1 and 5, you can state your opinion.

Do not agree at all 1	1

UE143 Innomodule Estimating

Q687 In the following, we would like to talk about the mistakes that can be made in the assessment of human behavior. For this it is important to know: every assessment, every test, can always make two kinds of mistakes! For example, take the detectors or scanners in the airport security area, which check if someone is carrying a weapon. Go through, and then the detector beeps, even though you don't carry anything with you - then the detector made a mistake - it gave a false alarm. The other mistake the detector can make would be if a terrorist went through and did not beep anything despite the weapon. Then the detector would have overlooked the weapon. These two types of errors—mis-alarm and overlooked—occur with every assessment, every test.

UE144 Schufa

Q689 Maybe you've heard of the Schufa before. The Schufa and other service providers assess the creditworthiness and solvency of all persons in Germany. This helps companies decide whether a customer gets a mobile phone contract, a flat for rent, or a cheap loan, for example.

UE153 Innomodule Income Distribution II - Part 3

Q727 We just talked about assessments and until when you think they are still acceptable or not. Now we are concerned with the extent to which you generally trust certain institutions or other things that are important for our society.

Please answer using the following scale: 1 means "Very little" 5 means "To a great extent". You can downgrade your answers using the steps in between.

Show list 727!

	Very little 1	2	3	4	To a great extent 5	I don't know -2	No answer -1
How much confidence do you have that the government is doing the right thing?	1	2	3	4	5	-2	-1
How much trust do you have that the media (e.g. newspapers, TV, radio) report on news completely, accurately and fairly?	1	2	3	4	5	-2	-1
How much trust do you have in official government statistics, e.g. regarding unemployment, crime, immigration, economic growth or inflation?	1	2	3	4	5	-2	-1
How much trust do you have that science produces knowledge that advances our society?	1	2	3	4	5	-2	-1

Q729

For the following questions, please hand over the laptop to the interviewee.

[Q4682573,1,3]

Q730 Recently, numerous data leaks have revealed various practices of tax avoidance and evasion by large corporations or wealthy individuals, politicians and football players. Based on these data leaks, scientific studies estimate that households with the most wealth – including households with net assets of around 39 million Euro or more – evade about 30% of taxes.

Q731 How justifiable do you think it is to evade taxes if there is an easy way to do that?

Please answer using the following scale: 1 means: very justifiable, 5 means: not at all justifiable. With the steps in between, you can downgrade your opinion.

For very justifiable 1	1
3	3
4	4
For not at all justifiable 5	5
No answer	-1

Q732

Please give the laptop back to the interviewer.

Q733 We are still interested in the subject of “Taxation”. What income tax rate do you think the following groups should pay? For example, if you earn EUR 10,000 and pay EUR 1,000 in income tax, the tax rate would be 10%. The richest group is the top 1%, i.e. 99% of the population are poorer. The rich group means that 1% of the population is richer and 90% of the population is poorer than this group. The group of wealthy people means that 10% of the population is richer and 50% of the population is poorer than this group. The remaining persons are the bottom 50% of the population.

0% means no tax to pay at all and 100% means that all income goes to the state as a tax.

Note in case of queries:

Group of the richest (Top 1%)	<input type="text"/>
percent	<input type="text"/>
Group of rich people (the next 9%)	<input type="text"/>

Group of wealthy (next 40%)	<input type="text"/>
percent	<input type="text"/>
Group of other persons (the bottom 50%)	<input type="text"/>

Q734 Thank you for your assessments on taxation. We are now moving on to another issue.

UE156 Innomodule Free Time Activities - Part 2

[nSpäteGruppe = 1 & Q178,1,2 & Q179,1,2]

Q6400399 We come back to your activities during your free time.

If asked why the respondent has to answer such similar questions again: one question block is about concrete activities (i.e. what you do) and the other block is about areas where one is active.

Q738 In conclusion, we would like to ask you about your satisfaction with your life in general. How satisfied are you with your life, all things considered?

Please answer on a scale from 0 to 10, where 0 means “completely dissatisfied” and 10 means “completely satisfied”. You can use the values in between to make your estimate.
