

Call for Paper Workshop “Finance and Development”

Financial systems have developed rapidly in many developing countries. These changes increase the need for research into their effects, especially with a focus on financial inclusion / individual responses.

To this end DIW Berlin will host a workshop in the field of “Finance and Development” to be held in Berlin on April 27 in the afternoon and full day April 28, 2023. The workshop will not have parallel sessions.

The keynote speaker is Xavier Giné (World Bank).

We ask for contributions towards the workshop with a particular focus on aspects of financial decision making in developing countries, such as:

- Financial inclusion of households and entrepreneurs
- Household finance in developing countries
- Financial literacy, microfinance, SME finance
- Capital flows and its impact on financial inclusion

Decisions of participation will be made by the program committee, which consists of Thorsten Beck (European University Institute), Xavier Giné (World Bank), Robert Lensink (University Groningen), Lukas Menkhoff (DIW Berlin), Ugo Panizza (Graduate Institute Geneva), and Bilal Zia (World Bank).

Please send full papers together with a binding nomination of the presenter to FinandDev2023@diw.de by February 2, 2023. Notices of acceptance will be given by March 2. In case of questions please do not hesitate to contact Anja Kegel at the same email address.

We thank for financial support by the

